

News of South Richmond

"Berry's for Clothes"
Beginning to-day we will close our store at 7 P. M. on Saturdays during the Summer months.

"Labor to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire—conscience."—Rule from Copybook of Washington.

Before disappearing for the "Fourth" you'll want to fix-up some.

You'd better select your Suit Case to-day.

Dandy cases here at $5.

Don't borrow.

one of the robbers was Carl Anderson, of Renova, Pa., a traveling salesman, who was going to Chicago.

WILL WITHDRAW BORDER TROOPS
Military Force Sufficient for Emergency to Be Left in Texas.

Washington, June 30.—Leaving on the Mexican border a military force adequate to meet any emergency that might arise, President Taft today authorized the withdrawal from the manœuvre division of four regiments of infantry, the Ninth Cavalry and the Fourth Field Artillery. The infantry regiments to be withdrawn have not yet been selected. The movement will be gradual and will consume probably thirty days. The withdrawn troops will return to their home stations. The following troops will remain in Texas: A brigade of infantry, composed of regiments not under orders to go to the Philippines; two regiments of coast artillery, part of the Third and the Eleventh Cavalry, and part of the Third Field Artillery. The Eleventh Cavalry probably will be stationed at Kerville, near San Antonio.

HOLLER IS HELD ON GRAVE CHARGE
Trailed by Bloodhounds After Discovery of Daring Crime.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Cumberland, Md., June 30.—Frank Holler, who says he is a son of William H. Holler, of Woodstock, Va., is in jail here charged with having bound and gagged pretty eighteen-year-old Marie Bradour, daughter of a wealthy farmer near here, and then assaulted her. Holler was trailed by blood hounds from the Philadelphia area, where he was captured. Holler was whisked to jail to prevent lynching. The jail is closely guarded to-night and the members of Company G, sleeping on their arms, are ready at moment's notice in the event their services are needed.

Additional Exceptions Filed.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Alexandria, Va., June 30.—Additional exceptions to the report of John M. Johnson, special commissioner in the case of T. J. Fannon and others against the defunct Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, were filed in the Corporation Court this afternoon by J. K. M. Norton and Howard W. Smith, receivers for the defunct concern.

FACING ANOTHER GRAFT INQUIRY

Senate Receives Records of State Investigation of Stephenson's Election.

PROBE IS REQUESTED
Conceded That Lorimer Case Furnishes Precedent for Action.

Washington, June 30.—Another senatorial election investigation was placed before the Senate Committee on Elections to-day, when the full certified records of the legislative investigation of the election of United States Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, were received by the Vice-President, laid before the Senate, and referred to the committee.

The investigation first was made by a joint committee of the Wisconsin Legislature, which found no direct violation of law, and subsequently, by a special committee of the Wisconsin Senate, which, in its report, made a variety of charges in connection with Senator Stephenson's election.

The Senate members of the joint committee of the two houses of the Wisconsin Legislature did not join with the House members in the report which made no specific finding against the Senator.

The report of the State Senate's special committee declared Mr. Stephenson's election to be a case of corruption, and alleged that $167,000 had been spent in his behalf.

No Senator was willing to say today what the Senate here may do until the Committee on Privileges and Elections finds opportunity to go over the papers, but it generally was conceded that the Lorimer inquiry supplied a precedent for an investigation.

Senator Stephenson and his friends have contended that the expenditures in the campaign were legitimate. Books showing the payment of $25,000, were exhibited before the Wisconsin committee.

The State probably will complete its case against Vondermiller late to-day. Eight witnesses were introduced yesterday by Commonwealth's Attorney Crandal Mackey, eight witnesses gave their testimony this morning before adjournment; a dozen more will end the State's presentation.

Frank Dennis Testifies.
The chief witness this morning was Frank Dennis, a local country policeman. He narrated circumstances of his meeting with Vondermiller the night before the tragedy; of his part in investigating the tragedy; of the location of the gun with which the deed had been committed; of a red-headed man, Vondermiller, who had been snatched from the street by a group of men, and of finding an area of grass beaten down, where it was assumed that Vondermiller had waited for the coming of Reeves to the station to catch his morning train to Washington, and of the gun and powder.

The gun and powder, the dead man, his bullet-riddled straw hat and the contents of the pockets were put in evidence by the State.

There were many passages-at-arms between the Commonwealth's attorney and counsel for the defense. Vondermiller's attorneys objected to the leading character of many of Mr. Mackey's questions, and protested that he was himself putting evidence into the mouths of his witnesses. The court as often sustained the defense as the State.

Prisoner All Attention.
The prisoner sat in his corner of the court, chin on his hand, looking down. When he raised his head, however, his face did not wear an expression of dejection, but rather of close attention.

W. A. Pirtle, the first witness, testified to the condition of the bushes where Vondermiller was said to have been hiding prior to the killing. He said that the grass was crushed as though some one had been lying there.

The defense, in cross-examining Pirtle, asked him to admit that he had himself lain down in the spot, demonstrating the action of Vondermiller, before Pirtle had seen the place.

Eight Testify for State.
Eight witnesses testified for the State yesterday after the jury had been selected. Under the direction of the Commonwealth's Attorney, George Wise, who prepared Reeves's body for burial, testified regarding the wounds on the dead man's head which caused death. He was cross-examined by William Taylor, his assistant.

A. C. Taylor, motorman of the car that reached Syphax Station just after the tragedy, told of finding Reeves lying wounded on the ground, his breathing, and of carrying him into the station building.

Robert Syphax, Department messenger, heard the fatal shots, and passed Vondermiller walking away from the scene. Syphax said he had heard Reeves, several days before the killing, Vondermiller, when the latter had snatched a pistol in his face that failed to go off.

Cornelius Syphax, Agricultural Department messenger, also testified. He was asked by Vondermiller for the location of the fatal shots, and he said he saw a hawk.

Morris Ferguson, storekeeper, also testified. He was asked by Vondermiller for the location of the fatal shots, and he said he saw a hawk.

BOY FATALLY INJURED.
While Riding on Bicycle Collides With Farmer's Wagon.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Norfolk, Va., June 30.—Lawrence Bisset, a thirteen-year-old son of William Bisset, probably was fatally injured to-day when his bicycle collided with a farmer's wagon in Portsmouth.

The boy was taken to the Portsmouth Hospital for an operation. He is not expected to recover. The boy's father is master mechanic of the Renbaird Air Line Railway.

SPRING SURPRISE AT MURDER TRIAL

Defense Creates Sensation in the Vondermiller Case.

BOY'S STATEMENTS VARY
State's Witness Has Signed Paper Favorable to Prisoner.

Washington, June 30.—Exhibiting to the court a statement, signed by Lawrence O'Connor, a sixteen-year-old boy, who was a witness for the State, that Louis Vondermiller, when seen by O'Connor crouching in the bushes near the scene of the killing of John Reeves and just prior to the tragedy, acted "like a crazy man," the defense sprung a sensation this morning upon Commonwealth's Attorney Crandal Mackey and Judge Thornton, who is trying the case in the county court of Alexandria county.

Vondermiller is on trial for his life on the charge of murdering Reeves, his brother-in-law, at Syphax Station, the morning of June 5.

O'Connor had just testified, on cross-examination, that Vondermiller did not look or act like a crazy man at the time. The defense, represented by the firm of Moncre, Wampler & Glott, called his attention to the statement he had signed only the day before, and asked him if he had not been repeatedly asked before he signed the statement if Vondermiller's actions did not suggest insanity.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

The Commonwealth's attorney called the attention of the court to the fact that the defense had obtained the statement from one of the witnesses under duress, and that the witness, Vondermiller, had been threatened with imprisonment if he did not sign the statement.

South Richmond Bureau.
The Times-Dispatch.
Phone Madison 115.

Squire Cheatham handled a record-breaking docket yesterday morning in the regular session of the Oak Grove court, the misdemeanor ranging from grave to light.

Sam Banks, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 and costs, and required to find $100 bond for six months. Failing to secure the bond he was committed to the roads for six months.

Chester Lee, a young white man, charged with making an assault on G. H. Hoffman, charged with a misdemeanor, were fined $25 and costs each and required to find $100 bond for good behavior. In default of payment the two were sent to jail for six months.

William Wilson, white, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sentenced to serve sixty days in the public house.

B. T. Brown, charged with cursing, abusing and threatening his landlord, W. D. Jordan, was fined $25 and costs.

Four young white boys, Jack Yost, George Vest, Dan Workman and Alex Tomlin, arrested for trespassing on the property of the Redford Hotel, were dismissed with a warning by the magistrate.

The boys descended on the brick yards after the closing hours and did considerable damage. Mary Wain and Mary Banks, both colored, charged with running an objectionable place, were fined $10 and costs each and asked for $25 security for six months. They were unable to procure the bond and were turned over to the county jail.

Sam Banks is the woman who was stabbed in South Richmond, the public house, colored, following an altercation. She was discovered in a dying condition by a balance surgeon who received a call from the property.

With the filing of another real estate deed in the Hustings Court, Part 2, yesterday, a row of plans for the new stores to be erected immediately, real estate and building operations in South Richmond, facing it is the plant of the Union Trunk Company.

The Union Trunk Company has a spur track that runs up Bainbridge Street by Mr. Fore's lot and the laying of a switch would give a factory on the site the best railway shipping facilities.

To Build Three Stores.
The contract has been awarded and the building permit applied for by Jake Levy for a row of three combination stores and flats on Hull Street just east of the intersection of Hull Street and the new extension of the street.

The stores, to cost in the neighborhood of $15,000, will be at 100-102-104 Hull Street. The building at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

Mr. Levy, who is a resident of South Richmond, is the owner of the property. The building is to be a three-story structure, with a ground floor for stores, and two upper floors for flats.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

At the same time work is progressing rapidly on Francis's model combination building at 100 Hull Street, which probably be ready for occupancy by the fall. Preparations are being made for the building of a new store at the corner of Hull Street and the new extension of the street, the trend of South Richmond's expansion to be southward, and all the new mercantile buildings under contemplation or in the process of erection are situated in the southern portion of the ward.

range that the number of the going in the morning in counting the street possible, one man a machine and ready as they are put before him. In case the wrong place when an ambulance is now an infallible was to blame.

To Have Fun.
The officers of the South of the Boy Scouts of the good weather and the boys last night to the law recruits can be developed into a rival the youngsters on the river.

Every kid of the 115th not locked in the house but was on hand promptly in the last night, and all set to work to follow the instructions of his fellow officers. With the newly-appointed sergeants the division into squads, which court with facility, and the boys turned and whirled from one green to the other.

The lure of the summer and the Boys' Brigade at Glen Allen is acting like a charm to make every ounce of their strength into solidly obedient time. Though a large number of scouts are clamoring for admission, the enrollment books will not be opened until some progress has been made in the present enlistment force. Officers are elected at the earliest convenient time.

Not Yet Decided.
While another mass-meeting of the Grove citizens will not be called by the "Association" before July 10, all supporters of the better school in the district are preparing to add weight to the cause when the question of a new school for Oak Grove is voted on at a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield county, which has been called for this date.

In addition to the regular committee of six that has been working up the district's case since the movement was first set on foot, many citizens in sympathy with the cause will attend the special meeting. The next scheduled meeting of Oak Grove citizens will be on Friday night, July 22, when the result of the campaign will be known, and other plans devised in case the district's side meets defeat on July 10.

Not Yet Decided.
Stating that two things made him hesitate, M. A. Campbell, of Twelfth and Bainbridge Streets, South Richmond, last night requested the committee of South Richmond citizens who waited upon him that he be given an extension of time for his decision as to whether or not he will be a candidate for the Legislature from the Sixteenth District to oppose D. L. Toney and Robert G. Porter for Governor.

However, from Mr. Campbell's general attitude the committee left the conference feeling that he could be brought to their way of thinking, and confidence was expressed by them. Last night Mr. Campbell would publicly announce his candidacy by the first of next week. In the committee of fifteen which was named by Mr. Campbell last night were many of the most prominent Democrats in South Richmond, and they held out a promise of strong support if Mr. Campbell will consent to put up his name.

Mr. Campbell has been in the public eye as a member of the old Manchester City Council, and while serving in that capacity won a host of admirers.

In the absence of the Rev. J. J. F. Smith, of the Baptist Mission Board, will preach at both night and morning services to be held in the First Baptist Presbyterian Church. The communion service has been postponed until July 3.

Thursday night at the closing of the school, Mrs. E. Howlett Trainum's music school. The medal for improvement and punctuality in the school was delivered by Judge Wells to Miss Edith Matthews, the medal for the lower school went to Miss Mary Williamson and Miss Emily Lucy. In honor of the occasion the church was decorated in palms and flowers.

During the closing hours yesterday afternoon of the first half of the city taxes, beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

Beginning to-day at 8 o'clock, a P. Robertson was rushed to the limit with taxpayers who had waited until the eleventh hour to pay their taxes.

range that the number of the going in the morning in counting the street possible, one man a machine and ready as they are put before him. In case the wrong place when an ambulance is now an infallible was to blame.

To Have Fun.
The officers of the South of the Boy Scouts of the good weather and the boys last night to the law recruits can be developed into a rival the youngsters on the river.

Every kid of the 115th not locked in the house but was on hand promptly in the last night, and all set to work to follow the instructions of his fellow officers. With the newly-appointed sergeants the division into squads, which court with facility, and the boys turned and whirled from one green to the other.

The lure of the summer and the Boys' Brigade at Glen Allen is acting like a charm to make every ounce of their strength into solidly obedient time. Though a large number of scouts are clamoring for admission, the enrollment books will not be opened until some progress has been made in the present enlistment force. Officers are elected at the earliest convenient time.

Not Yet Decided.
While another mass-meeting of the Grove citizens will not be called by the "Association" before July 10, all supporters of the better school in the district are preparing to add weight to the cause when the question of a new school for Oak Grove is voted on at a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield county, which has been called for this date.

In addition to the regular committee of six that has been working up the district's case since the movement was first set on foot, many citizens in sympathy with the cause will attend the special meeting. The next scheduled meeting of Oak Grove citizens will be on Friday night, July 22, when the result of the campaign will be known, and other plans devised in case the district's side meets defeat on July 10.

Not Yet Decided.
Stating that two things made him hesitate, M. A. Campbell, of Twelfth and Bainbridge Streets, South Richmond, last night requested the committee of South Richmond citizens who waited upon him that he be given an extension of time for his decision as to whether or not he will be a candidate for the Legislature from the Sixteenth District to oppose D. L. Toney and Robert G. Porter for Governor.

However, from Mr. Campbell's general attitude the committee left the conference feeling that he could be brought to their way of thinking, and confidence was expressed by them. Last night Mr. Campbell would publicly announce his candidacy by the first of next week. In the committee of fifteen which was